ALTA - About the Association

The Academic Language Therapy Association's mission is to provide its members with a distinction of excellence by setting high standards through an international certification for individuals who complete rigorous evidence-based multisensory structured language coursework and supervised practicum. ALTA verifies that certified members follow a professional code of ethics and complete continuing education to broaden and strengthen their expertise in the field of dyslexia and related disorders. ALTA provides our communities-at-large with leadership and resources to promote quality practices and guidance in the field of dyslexia.

List of Pre-approved Sponsoring Organizations

Sponsoring Agency Group Event Approval Form

If you are an agency or individual facilitating an event that takes the form(s) of webinars, lectures, courses, seminars, workshops, or symposia and meets the criteria as stated in the Guidelines for Sponsorship of Continuing Education, you're encouraged to apply for Group Event approval.

Individual Event Application Form

Many members discover continuing education opportunities that may lack pre-approval, and do not appear as Group Events on the ALTA Calendar. In these cases, members may apply for CEU credit by completing the Individual Event Application.
